Neighborhood Studios is for teens interested in the visual arts, music, theater and dance as careers or serious sideline pursuits. The program provides free beginning, intermediate and advanced instruction in a variety of fields all toward the goal of developing and increasing the students' talents. Students who successfully complete this program provide themselves with the greatest probability of being accepted into the summer paid internship program, and qualifying for increased wages.

This program is open to all youth ages 13 to 19 in Bridgeport, Fairfield, Stratford and Trumbull.

Each class is held once per week for 2 – 2.5 hours. Classes will begin the first week in October 2009.
