Art Institute

This course will provide students ages 5 to 12 years old the opportunity to explore the world of the visual arts. Beginning level classes will introduce students to the world of the visual arts through fun projects. Intermediate classes will build upon the skills students developed in beginning classes to develop new techniques through a variety of media – paint, pencil, clay, etc. Beginning classes are open to all students; students will need prior experience in art in order to enroll in intermediate classes.

Classes are 55 minutes and will begin on Saturday, October 2, 2010.
